Leigh joins Bank of Texas as Dallas market CEO

DALLAS, Texas— Bank of Texas has hired Grant W. Leigh as CEO of the Dallas market. Leigh brings nearly two decades of experience in banking, team leadership and client relationship management to his new role.

“Grant knows how to build great teams and develop smart solutions for clients with complex needs,” said Texas Market Executive Mark Wade, at Bank of Texas. “His experience leading in fast-paced markets like Dallas and his commitment to long-term client success will really boost our organization’s expertise.”

His prior banking experience includes leadership roles in Energy, Credit, and Commercial divisions. In his most recent role with Texas Capital Bank he was Managing Director and Head of Dallas Middle Market and Dallas Market President.

Leigh earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Baylor University and is a member of the Dallas Regional Chamber’s Executive Circle. In his spare time, he enjoys coaching youth basketball and spending time with his family.
